2 current use assessment for bona fide conservation use property, residential transitional
3 property, application procedures, penalties for breach of covenant, classification on tax
4 digest, and annual report, so as to change certain provisions relating to buffers adjacent to 5 rivers or perennial streams; to provide for current use assessment for certain undeveloped
6 land areas within buffer zones established by law or local ordinance adjacent to rivers,
7 perennial streams, or reservoirs; to provide for exemptions from certain covenant and penalty
8 provisions; to provide for loss current use assessment in certain circumstances; to provide 9 a contingent effective date; to provide for applicability; to provide for contingent repeal; to 10 provide for to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

11 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

12 SECTION 1.

13 Code Section 48-5-7.4 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to current use
14 assessment for bona fide conservation use property, residential transitional property, 15 application procedures, penalties for breach of covenant, classification on tax digest, and 16 annual report, is amended by striking subparagraph (a)(2)(F) and inserting in lieu thereof the 17 following:

18 "(F) River or stream corridors or buffers which shall be defined as those undeveloped 19 lands which are:

- 20 (i) Adjacent to buffer zones described in division (ii) of this subparagraph along 21 rivers and, reservoirs, or perennial streams that are within the 100 year flood plain as 22 depicted on official maps prepared by the Federal Emergency Management Agency 23 and which adjacent lands remain in their natural, undisturbed state of vegetation; or 24 (ii) Within buffer zones adjacent to rivers, reservoirs, or perennial streams, which 25 buffer zones are established by law or local ordinance and within which land-disturbing activity is prohibited and which lands remain in their natural, undisturbed state of vegetation. For purposes of this division, the term 'land-disturbing activity' has the meaning provided by Code Section 12-7-3; provided, however, that lands subjected to agricultural operations and forestry land management operations that are exempted by Code Section 12-7-17 from the provisions of Chapter 7 of Title 12, the 'Erosion and Sedimentation Act of 1975,' shall not be considered disturbed for purposes of this division;"

SECTION 2.

Said Code section is further amended by striking subsection (u) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

~~"(u) Reserved.~~ (1) Land areas within buffer zones that qualify as bona fide conservation use property under division (a)(2)(F)(ii) of this Code section shall be exempt from any covenant requirements under this Code section and any procedures or penalties related to such covenants or breaches thereof, including but not limited to the provisions of subsections (d), (e), (g), (h), (i), (j), (l), (m), (n), (p), (q), and (x) of this Code section.

(2) If any land-disturbing activity is conducted on land within such a buffer zone by or with the permission of the property owner after the current use assessment for such land has been claimed by and allowed to such owner, the current use assessment shall not, for the taxable year in which such land-disturbing activity occurred and all taxable years thereafter, apply for the same owner as to all such buffer zone areas required by law or local ordinance that are within a buffer zone on the same contiguous tract."

SECTION 3.

This Act shall become effective on January 1, 2007, and shall apply to all taxable years beginning on or after such date; except that if an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Georgia authorizing an exemption from the covenant requirement for bona fide conservation use property as to stream buffer areas is not ratified at the general election in 2006, this Act shall be repealed in its entirety on January 1, 2007.

SECTION 4.

All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
